

FRRME Prayer Diary – December 2013

Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday	Sunday
Sunday 1st / 2nd Pray for St George's at this time of Advent, as they await and prepare for the Celebration of the Nativity. For a time of refreshing and renewal in their faith.	3rd Pray for all of Andrew's essential support and security staff at St George's. That they would have grace, strength and wisdom in their ministry.	4th Please continue to pray for the Mesopotamia School of Ministry (MSM) in Kurdistan, the school of ministry set up to train and equip Christians in the Middle East.	5th Pray for the UK FRRME team. That they may be blessed with encouragement for 2014 and wisdom and encouragement in all their ministry.	6th Pray for the FRRME reconciliation programs. That the British and US governments would continue to release more funding for this essential ministry.	7th Pray for the work of FRRME partners, Release International and Christian Solidarity Worldwide in supporting the persecuted Church. For great favour in all their ministry.	8th Pray for the many widows and single mothers who attend St George's – that they would deeply know the God who can provide all that they need, particularly as Christmas approaches.
9th Pray for the children of St George's. That their faith will hold firm in the face of the violence they see on the streets of Baghdad.	10th Pray for Mosaica, our partners in Israel. That together we will advance the cause of peace and reconciliation in 2014.	11th Pray for all who come to St George's to receive food and medical assistance. That they would know the God who truly cares for them.	12th Pray for our multi-faith clinic staff. For their blessing, safety, and continued wisdom and gifting in all their medical work.	13th Pray for Bishop Michael Lewis, Bishop of Cyprus and the Gulf as he visits St George's. May it be a truly blessed time for him and Canon Andrew.	14th Pray for Faез as he cares for the church, oversees the relief distribution and the work of the clinic. May he be truly blessed in his ministry.	15th Pray for the young people of St George's. That they would continue to be strengthened in their faith and knowledge of the One who loves them and their country.
16th Pray for our team at FRRME America, led by General Greer. For encouragement in their fundraising initiatives and in building networking relations with the US churches.	17th Pray for those who lead worship at St George's. That they would continue to grow in grace and anointing as they lead worshippers in glorifying God.	18th Pray for the Muslims who the congregation at St George's interact with daily. That they would be touched by the gospel of love.	19th Pray for the Iraqi government and all those in authority – for a strengthening of the unity across sectarian divides and minds to make peace.	20th Pray for Nawal and the Mothers Union, as they care for the women of St George's and also visit the sick and lonely in the community. For safety, wisdom and grace.	21st Pray for the UK and US diplomatic staff who attend Andrew's church services at the embassies. That they would be truly blessed in their work.	22nd Pray for a safe and comfortable journey for Andrew as he travels back to the UK. For God's continued healing and blessing in his life.
23rd Pray for Andrew's wife and family. That they would have a blessed and refreshing time together whilst Andrew is back in the UK.	24th Pray for those in prison in Iraq this Christmas whom Andrew visits on a regular basis. That they would grow in the knowledge of God's faithfulness and love.	25th For to us a child is born, to us a son is given, and the government will be on his shoulders. And he will be called Wonderful Counsellor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. Isaiah 9:6.	26th Pray for the Baghdad FRRME team. That they would feel encouraged with God's strength and wisdom as they reach out in their vital ministry.	27th Pray for the many Muslim women who come to St George's, as a result of Nawal's work with the MU. That God's Word would be at home in their hearts.	28th Pray for those at St George's who are broken hearted. That they would know the comfort and strengthening of God's Spirit and new hope for the coming year.	29th Pray for Andrew as he speaks at Forest Hill, Malham Christian Centre, and St Paul's Howell Hill – that the congregations would be blessed and inspired by the story of St George's.
30th Pray for the vital grassroots reconciliation work with local religious leaders, and forthcoming meetings in Iraq. That it would continue to be truly blessed and fruitful.	31st Pray for Andrew as he prepares to journey back to Iraq. May the New Year be a great blessing for him and FRRME in the vital ministry of relief and reconciliation.	 † We thank God for 2013, for His blessing and protection of St George's, and His anointing upon the vital reconciliation work that is taking place. † Wishing you a most Happy and Blessed Christmas and Hanukkah. With much love from Canon Andrew and the FRRME team				