

FRRME Prayer Diary – September 2017

Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday	Sunday
Giving Thanks: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> We thank you Lord for our faithful supporters. Their prayers and financial support for the displaced and dispossessed of Iraq is what inspires the whole of FRRME's team and trustees. We thank you Lord for providing FRRME with a new CEO, Mike Simpson, and for his passion in leading FRRME forward to help the Christians of Iraq tell their story. We thank you Lord for Canon Andrew, who founded this precious work, and bless and honour him. 				1st Pray for the voices of Christians in Iraq and Christian refugees across the region to be heard.	2nd Pray that our plans to record film and video of the people we work with will come to fruition, so that we can tell their real life stories.	3rd Pray that as FRRME shares these stories, and the impact on these families, how we have and can make a lasting difference to their lives.
4th Pray for protection for FRRME's NGO partners working towards relief and reconciliation in the Middle East. May they refreshed in their work.	5th Over 50,000 Christian Iraqis have sought refuge via Jordan. Pray for the Jordanian government, giving thanks for their compassion shown to the refugees.	6th Pray for the Iraqi Christian refugees in Jordan: for patience and grace as they await the outcome of their asylum applications	7th Pray for the local churches, who give much needed practical and pastoral support: Pastor Zaki Copti, Abuna Bolis and the local evangelical church leaders.	8th Pray for Helena, our Jordan Project Officer, as she builds relationship with local church partners. May she be blessed in body, mind and spirit in this vital ministry.	9th Pray for our new CEO Mike Simpson; that the Lord will give him wisdom and insight as he seeks to steer FRRME forward.	10th Pray that FRRME will serve as strong advocates for the more than 1 million Christians who have had to flee their homeland in Iraq.
11th Pray that FRRME will build upon our good contacts with governments to ensure that the reality of the situation faced by Christian families is made known to them.	12th Pray that FRRME will be bold in urging governmental support for these neglected people.	13th Pray for the Iraqi government and all those in authority – for unity and minds to make, not break peace.	14th Pray particularly for wisdom and blessing on Iraqi Prime Minister Haider al-Abadi.	15th Pray for Church leaders of the other Iraqi churches near St George's. That they would work together with love for each other.	16th Pray for the doctors and nursing staff at the St George's Medical Clinic. That they would have wisdom in all that they do.	17th Pray for all those who come to St George's to receive food and medical assistance. That they would know that God truly cares for them.
18th Pray for all those who lead worship at St George's. That God's name would be glorified and the church edified.	19th Pray for the young people of St George's. That they would know His will for their lives, and how much He cares for them.	20th Pray for Faiz, for wisdom as he ministers to his people. He spends much of his time listening to problems and giving counsel.	21st Pray for Zaid, Faiz and Nawal's very disabled son. Pray especially for Nawal as she looks after him.	22nd Pray for the church security guards. For protection as they conduct this dangerous work faithfully.	23rd Pray for FRRME's fundraisers, that God may protect, reward and continue to inspire them in their assistance to those in need.	24th Pray for Dr Sarah in her ministry and relief work in Northern Iraq. May she have favour in her dealings with local government.
25th Today is the date of the Iraqi Kurdistan independence referendum. Pray for the most peaceful outcome that reflects God's heart for the region.	26th Pray for protection and peace for the IDPs in the camps spread throughout Northern Iraq. May they have a renewed sense of hope for the future.	27th Pray for the Church Partners we work with in the Kurdistan region. For great blessings on their practical and spiritual ministry to Christian IDPs.	28th Pray for the Autism Centre in Kirkuk and Dr Firmaisek who cares for 85 children, traditionally shut away. Pray provision for the £5,000/m necessary to support this ministry.	29th Pray for God's guidance for FRRME's Board of Trustees. May they be led by God's spirit to discern and govern wisely.	30th Pray for the FRRME UK, including administration, communication and finance. May God bless, anoint and encourage them in their work.

Now therefore, while we have time, let us do good to every person, especially to the members of the household of faith. Galatians 6:10. Aramaic Bible ©2013.
